June 22, 2018 – (Los Angeles, CA.) – Today, Houndmouth release a new video, “Modern Love (Live From The Green House)”. “Modern Love” is brand new track taken from their upcoming album Golden Age, released on August 3 via Reprise Records. The video was directed and produced by Matt Fulks for Tomahaux Media and features the band performing the song in their home studio in New Albany, Indiana where the band originally formed and recorded all their early work. The space originally belonged to drummer Shane Cody’s grandparents where Houndmouth still rehearse to this day. The Green House has remained in the Cody family for nearly 150 years and remains to provide a creative haven for the band. Houndmouth performs one of their most personal songs to date live in their most natural and private setting as it takes on a special poignancy.
