Rising London-based vocalist, songwriter and producer Khushi is set to support James Blake on his U.K. tour, which kicked off yesterday, April 7th in Manchester and will run through April 18 in London. See below for full tour details.

Khushi is also premiering his live video for “Freedom Falls” today—watch here. The video was shot at Fox Theater in Oakland, CA during Khushi’s recent North American tour with Blake.

“Freedom Falls” is taken from Khushi’s forthcoming debut album on Warner Bros. Records. The album was recorded over the past six years and produced by Khushi with additional production mixing from Blake, with whom Khushi worked on his acclaimed new album Assume Form.

Khushi first rose to prominence with 2013’s “Magpie” and 2014’s “Phantoms.” After spending the past three years as part of the critically acclaimed band Strong Asian Mothers, making A-list on BBC radio playlists, he is returning to this deeply personal project.
