March 25, 2020 (Los Angeles, CA) – Filipino-Australian R&B wunderkind, RINI, has released a gorgeous new video for standout track, “Aphrodite.” The song itself has already garnered more than 5 million global streams. Now based in LA, RINI is hard at work on a new project slated for release sometime this year while his music and stunning voice have been connecting organically worldwide, amassing nearly 35 million streams across platforms. The “Aphrodite” video follows his latest visual for fan-favorite, “My Favourite Clothes,” which has racked in over 11.4 million streams globally. RINI’s future-classic brand of R&B focuses on themes of love, loss and passion, while resonating amongst young fans, who are fervently streaming and covering his music and engaging on social platforms. Stay tuned for more to come from RINI soon.

ABOUT RINI:

Justerini Sandoval, also known as RINI, is an Australian-born R&B/soul singer/songwriter/producer, who has recently relocated to Los Angeles. His most recent body of work is his self-titled project, RINI, which features JSPA, Nasty Mars, Olivia Escuyos and RMR Productions. In 2018, RINI released his After the Sun EP, a soulful sunset story that mainly touches on the beauty of women, the sweetness of another day and an appreciation for life. After the Sun, in its entirety, is a love letter to life, which RINI took on the road for his first sold-out Australian After the Sun Tour. The singer/composer and multi-instrumentalist has garnered international attention with a fan base that continues to soar.
