

SACKS AND CO.

Entertainment WEEKLY

September 9, 2016

FALL MUSIC PREVIEW

GREEN DAY's raucous return, TOVE LO's bold pop breakout, LIN-MANUEL MIRANDA's adventurous Hamilton experiment, and more: EW has exclusive scoop on the 42 records that matter most this season

Regina Spektr

REMEMBER US
TO LIFE

SEPT. 30

● The Russian-born piano prodigy finished her latest album ages ago. Sort of. "I had so many songs waiting in the wings, and I mixed and matched to get them out of the purgatory of being sketches," she says of Remember Us to Life, which includes everything from sophisticated piano-powered pop to R&B chants to orchestral arrangements from producer-guitarist Leo Abrahams. "[But] all of these songs are new, even to me.... I feel like I've been working on it forever, but I'm ready for it to be in somebody's ears, like I'm singing to them."