“utterly cool” - Rolling Stone

“monumental part of the evolution of Afrobeats.” - On The Radar Radio

August 18, 2022 (Los Angeles, CA) – Breakout Nigerian artist, songwriter, award-winning producer (Fire Boy DML, Davido, Olamide), and multi-instrumentalist Pheelz continues to heat up the summer with the sunny “Electricity” featuring Grammy Nominated Afrobeats icon Davido. The cut follows Pheelz’s breakthrough, “Finesse,” and builds on the feel-good fusion of pop sounds he’s explored in all his music so far. That carefree, celebratory energy is tangible in the accompanying video. Listen to “Electricity” HERE and watch the video HERE.

“Electricity” showcases the Lagos artist’s preternatural gift for making massive hooks feel low-key, relaxed, and, most importantly, emotional. “Life is not that deep, it’s all about the energy,” Pheelz declares over warm synths and fluttering drums. “You know everything I do is nobody else’s concern.” His floaty delivery, paired with the breezy production and Davido’s fluid vocals, make this the perfect anthem for late nights in the year’s warmest months.

On collaborating with Davido, Pheelz said, “It was an amazing experience working with Davido. I had already recorded the song then I played it for him when we linked up. He liked it, and I asked him if he wanted to jump on it, and he did. Man, David’s a really cool dude, and our recording session was smooth!”

All of that is reflected in the TG Omori-directed video, which finds the collaborators in a series of luxe, colorful, and ultimately thrilling locations. Pheelz chills in a café filled with motorcycles and women then meets up with Davido in what looks like an ice cavern equipped with a hot tub, before the two wind up performing in the midst of a crowded club, flanked by dancers.

"Electricity is about a boy in the darkness who has a light inside of him and just wants to shine. It's a motivational song with undertones of sadness. I hope the lyrics resonate with everyone out there going through dark times...going through life's dark valleys. I hope they are encouraged to turn on their lights and vibrate on another frequency to the record," said Pheelz.

2022 has been an exciting year for Pheelz, who has made the most of every opportunity that has come his way since the massive success of "Finesse," which established him as one of his home country's most gifted producers and songwriters, as well as an international star on the rise. He recently performed a dazzling set at Essence Fest's Afrobeats After Dark party in New Orleans and made his US television debut with a performance of "Finesse" on NBC's Late Show with Seth Meyers. Pheelz was also the first Afrobeats Artist to Perform at the BET Awards Pre-Show, where he earned a 2022 nomination for Best New International Act.

Now with "Electricity," Pheelz cements his status as one of Nigeria's most exciting crossover artists and delivers a track that'll no doubt be on repeat at parties all summer long.

ABOUT PHEELZ:

Pheelz writes with passion and sings from his soul. Over the past few years, the Lagos artist has made songs that blur the boundaries between Afrobeats, R&B, and mainstream pop—using intense emotion and vibrant melody as a force that bridges diverse sounds and styles. Songs like "Finesse," featuring fellow Nigerian star BNXN, have started to resonate—bringing Pheelz' boundary-pushing music and earnest, heartwarming emotion to the top of the charts in the UK and his home country. In a sense, it's a moment that Pheelz has been working toward since he was a kid. Pheelz, born Phillip Kayode Moses in 1994, grew up singing and playing keyboards in the church run by his father, who is a pastor in Lagos. He soon began producing and he landed his first hit at 16—"First of all" by Olamide, a woozy, electronic hip-hop jam. Since then, Pheelz has become one of Nigeria's most in-demand producers, working on records for stars like M.I, Mr. Eazi, and more. In 2020, he won Producer of the Year at The Headies—Nigeria's hip-hop awards—and in 2021, he released his breezy Hear Me Out EP, which earned millions of streams and brought his emotional pop to even more listeners around the world. Even so, the success of "Finesse" has changed everything for Pheelz, except his mission to put all of himself into his songs. He's sure that this is just the beginning of a meteoric rise now that he's inked a deal with Warner Records. "I've been plotting for years. I was ready," he says. "I am ready."

ABOUT DAVIDO:

2022 has been a busy year for Afrobeat's icon Davido. The American born, Nigerian raised superstar saw his music streaming surpass +2 Billion and his social media footprint exceed +50M, making him the most followed Afrobeat's artist in the world.
