

ABOUT 1ONLY:

1nonly's gothic whisper-raps are grim, yet glamorous. Every song, including his new single "Zoom," is a blur of euphoria and violence, a mosh pit of TikTok generation rap tropes, while the 17-year-old sits at the center, dropping flexes in a deceptively casual cadence. He's at peace in the chaos. Born Nathan Fuller in 2004 in Las Vegas, NV, 1nonly first immersed himself in scene bands like Linkin Park and Breaking Benjamin, finding rap as a high schooler through skate culture and the internet. He put out his first music in 2019, recorded on a gaming headset, and he immediately found an audience for his hooky, tongue-in-cheek style. As he immersed himself in recording more, he shifted from bedroom pop to rap and began honing his sample-heavy sound with hits like the silly "Shakira" and swooning "Ash Kaashh." But it was his viral hit "Stay With Me," which repurposes a sample from an iconic city pop song, that made him a star in early 2021. Now signed to Warner Records, 1nonly wants to take his songwriting to the next level, working with SoundCloud rappers like Xavier Wulf and Night Lovell who inspired him and tapping even further into the romantic darkness he's cultivated in his music. He's one of rap's true punks, making uniquely gloomy, angsty and otherworldly songs that just might push the whole genre forward.
