June 23, 2023 (Los Angeles, CA) - Madrid-based artist and producer Ralphie Choo shares his new single "GATA" featuring fellow Madrid-native Rusowsky. Preceded by his fiery COLORS performance of "Tangos De Una Moto Trucada" earlier this year, "GATA," which Ralphie self-produced, sparks the fuse for what is sure to be a breakout year for Ralphie as the first hint of new music from his forthcoming debut project coming this Fall. Arriving alongside "GATA" are the green-screen fueled visuals featuring kittens, tattoos, motorcycles and cowboy hats directed by ROY VICEROY.

For the uninitiated, Ralphie Choo exists as an equally-measured cocktail of unpredictable pop flare and the musical traditions of flamenco in Spain. His warped, glitchy reinterpretation of flamenco with his 2022 track "BULERÍAS DE UN CABALLO MALO" was awarded Best New Track by Pitchfork, who said of the song: "With each turn, Choo opens up the jagged depths below the music's glimmering surface." Ralphie and the entirety of the Madrid-based Rusia Idk collective that he's a key part of along with Rusowsky, thrive on crossing wires between modernity and tradition, creating music meant to surprise and challenge the conventions that separate the genres they love.

Check out "GATA" featuring Rusowsky above and stay tuned for more from Ralphie Choo coming soon.
