“Three Georgia-bred sisters create a harmonic thicket that manages to slip a subtle cheer into songs with a melancholy thread.” - Billboard

February 9, 2024 (Los Angeles, CA) – The debut EP, A Little Goes A Long Way, by neo-Traditional Country music sister-trio, The Castellows, is available NOW worldwide.

The Castellows, comprised of sisters Ellie (lead guitar), Powell (banjo) and Lily (vocals), wrote/co-wrote six of the seven songs that make up A Little Goes A Long Way, the band’s first project to release via Warner Records/Warner Music Nashville. Producing the outing is industry veteran Trina Shoemaker (Sheryl Crow, Nanci Griffith, Queens of the Stone Age).

The Castellows, being “one of the most buzzed-about new acts to have emerged in late 2023” [HOLLER.], continue to create a groundswell of anticipation among fans and the industry alike. To kick-off A Little Goes A Long Way release week, the band celebrated the benchmark of crossing the 100k subscribers mark on YouTube, although now on the platform their subscriber count is over 235k.

In addition, the band was recently named as one of the coveted CMT Next Women of Country, while also being included on multiple 2024 ‘watch lists’ including CMT Listen Up, Pandora, Country Now and Nashville Lifestyles’ ‘Five Groups You Need To Know.’

Next week, The Castellows take their masterful three-part harmonies on the road with the first stop of their 21-city tour in Little Rock, Arkansas on February 17th. Tickets on-sale now.
