March 22, 2024 (Los Angeles, CA) – Feel-good pop duo Crash Adams have released their debut EP Crashing Into Your Living Room, Vol. 1 via Warner Records / WMG Canada. The five-song project sees the band realizing their vision to create larger-than-life songs that relay a potent mix of adrenaline, nostalgia, and hard-earned gratitude. About the new EP, lead singer Rafaele Massarelli says, “We like a little bit of everything in our projects. We like a little bit of party, a little bit of emotion. We like to have something more serious, and maybe something is just completely ridiculous. We always take a piece of each emotion and put it together on our projects.”

Guitarist Vince Sasso adds, “We want to make people feel like they can do whatever they want. If you feel like you want to go to the moon, we want to make you believe you really can.”

The five-track body of work is filled with energy and uncontainable positivity. With no shortage of head-nodding hooks, Crashing Into Your Living Room Vol. 1 also showcases the scope of Crash Adams’ signature style. Among many standouts, horns cry out over sparse piano on the bold ballad “Good & Bad.” Meanwhile, a raw and relatable chorus takes hold, “When I’m looking back on the love we had, I got no regrets. It was good and bad. You’re the best I had.” Then, there’s the fiery “Right Foot First.” Funkified guitar sets the track in motion at full speed as ecstatic high-register vocals resound over a swaggering strut.

Crash Adams have had a monumental start to 2024. The pop hitmakers have captivated fans around the globe while being named one of the top artists on TikTok Canada in 2023. The duo also recently received a Juno Award nomination for Breakthrough Group of the Year and will appear on the 2024 broadcast this Sunday to present the award for TikTok Juno Fan Choice.
