August 28, 2026 (Los Angeles, CA) — NLE Choppa has never been afraid to show all sides of himself. Now, the multi-platinum Memphis superstar pulls back the curtain on heartbreak with his hypnotic new single “No Contact,” out now via NLE Entertainment/Warner Records. Listen HERE.

Built around a moody, synth-driven soundscape, “No Contact” finds Choppa trading his trademark bravado for raw vulnerability as he wrestles with the aftermath of a relationship that still lingers. His melodic delivery floats effortlessly over the production as he confronts the emptiness that comes with losing someone, wondering if they’ve moved on while he’s still trying to find his footing. “I’m empty without you…have you found someone new?” he asks on the song’s haunting, instantly memorable hook.

But even in his most vulnerable moments, Choppa remains unmistakably himself. He shifts gears with an energetic, rapid-fire verse, proving that emotional honesty doesn’t mean sacrificing the lyrical dexterity, charisma, or edge that have defined his career from the beginning. “No Contact” captures an artist willing to sit with the complicated parts of love—the longing, the regret, the unanswered questions—and turn them into something melodic, relatable and deeply human.

That same fearlessness has been on full display in Choppa’s recent Justin Credible Freestyle, where he unleashed a barrage of sharp punchlines and unapologetic bars, reminding listeners exactly why his pen has remained one of the most formidable in rap. With the return of his natural locs and a renewed focus on raw lyricism, the Memphis phenom looked completely at home behind the mic, effortlessly navigating the beat while addressing the noise around him head-on. Watch HERE.

With more than 11.6 billion streams, multiple platinum and multi-platinum certifications, and a catalog that has cemented him as one of the most recognizable voices to emerge from Memphis in his generation, NLE Choppa has never been an artist content to stay in one place. "No Contact" continues that evolution and creativity while bringing him back to one of his greatest strengths: saying exactly what he feels.
