KHUSHI PREMIERES “FROM ME” VIDEO VIA HYPEBEAST

London-based vocalist, songwriter and producer Khushi premieres the TK-directed video for “From Me” today via HYPEBEAST. Watch it here.

“The ‘From Me’ video is built around the improvisations of two dancers, Elijah Laurant and Kya Bliss,” Khushi tells HYPEBEAST. “They already knew each other and had a special dancing connection. The director, Parsons, and I wanted to give them space to bring their own creative instincts and natural chemistry to the process. They did an incredible job and Parsons, who also used to be a dancer, created an amazingly open, energetic and creative atmosphere on set. It was a madly fun day’s filming and this video is what emerged from that fertile chaos. The energetic shifts in the song are reflected with ever-evolving colour and movement in the video—a treat for the eyes hopefully!”

“From Me” is already receiving critical praise—TIME raves “Khushi is defining his own evocative sound as a solo artist...Here, he leans into reverberating echoes, delicate falsettos and hums, building tension to cinematic release. But the lyrics are intimate, delivered in a kind of confidential whisper.”

The new track appears on Khushi’s debut album—due on Warner Records later this year—and follows “Freedom Falls,” which Pigeons & Planes praises for Khushi’s “ear for ambitious, orchestral arrangements.”

The pair of songs are his first new music since 2014. The forthcoming album was recorded over the past six years and produced by Khushi himself.

Khushi is fresh off of touring North America and the U.K. with James Blake, with whom he collaborated on Blake’s much acclaimed recent album Assume Form. Blake, in turn, contributed additional production on several songs and mixing on Khushi’s debut.

Several more dates are slated for this summer, including a performance at Popscene in San Francisco on June 21.

Khushi first rose to prominence with 2013’s “Magpie” and 2014’s “Phantoms.” After spending the past three years as part of the critically acclaimed band Strong Asian Mothers, making the A-list on BBC radio playlists, he is returning to his deeply personal solo project.
