Check it out now and see what Black Fortune told HYPEBEAST about the new video below.

“McDeez is the first new track off the recently released 'OsshRock (Deluxe)' tape. There is a strong bike life scene and culture in the DMV and my license is suspended so I have to turn up on the 4 wheeler to get around. Video directed by Tyler B Studios x Pearl House. The song is produced by 14-year-old Swedish producer Maxx. There are a few more visuals off the 'OsshRock (Deluxe)' tape dropping soon and new project scheduled to release Fall '19.”

About Black Fortune:

Landover, Maryland historically may not be known for producing music stars, but that's about to change with the emergence of a 22-year-old rap and R&B phenom named Black Fortune. D.C./Maryland/Virginia (DMV) has slowly developed into a hotbed of youthful hip-hop culture, churning out original artists with new energy and Black Fortune's name is fast becoming synonymous with the spirit of it all. He started uploading music in 2016 and continued dropping heat over the next two years, but gained significant attention with 2018's "DMV Anthem."
