September 26, 2019 (Los Angeles) – Rising DMV rapper Black Fortune unveils a brand new video for "Rock Joint." After a summer filled with hot releases, including Osshrock (Deluxe) and visuals for "Keith Sweat" and "McDeez," the latest offering finds the young artist exploring some of Venice, California's scenic attractions. Whether it's cruising along the boardwalk, doing backflips at the basketball courts or dancing in the streets of the promenade, Black Fortune knows how to have a good time anywhere.

Black Fortune shared, "We shot this video spur of the moment and just turned Fairfax and Venice into a show for the people out there. I like entertaining anywhere I can!"

Stay tuned as Black Fortune takes the Osshrock (Deluxe) mixtape on tour this fall!

About Black Fortune:

Landover, Maryland historically may not be known for producing music stars, but that's about to change with the emergence of a 22-year-old rap and R&B phenom named Black Fortune. D.C./Maryland/Virginia (DMV) has slowly developed into a hotbed of youthful hip-hop culture, churning out original artists with new energy and Black Fortune's name is fast becoming synonymous with the spirit of it all. He started uploading music in 2016 and continued dropping heat over the next two years, but gained significant attention with 2018's "DMV Anthem."
