October 4, 2019 (Los Angeles, CA) - Following an electrifying performance at Rolling Loud Bay Area, 99 Neighbors unveil a new track titled "Thunder." Opening with a hypnotic croon over the sporadic production, the song effortlessly fluctuates between R&B and introspective rap lyrics.

Since announcing their signing to Nice Work/Warner Records back in July, 99 Neighbors have been taking on the industry at full speed. Not only have they shared a string of hot releases including "Fake Pods," "Ripstick" and "Fuck No" feat. Brasstracks and Philosophie and amassed over 5.2 million cumulative streams across platforms, but they've garnered early support from Billboard, Genius, Pigeons & Planes and many more.
