

What to Watch

A handy guide to solve your daily TV dilemmas*
Edited By | GERRAD HALL @GERRADHALL

Everyone will be talking about it tomorrow

MONDAY MARCH 4

Josh Groban Bridges: In Concert From Madison Square Garden

CHECK LOCAL LISTINGS | PBS

Josh Groban returns to his roots in this special, which spans new hits off Bridges; "River" and the Jennifer Nettles duet "99 Years" are stand-outs. The self-declared "theater geek" is at his best on Les Misérables' "Bring Him Home" and with Idina Menzel on Once's "Falling Slowly." Groban's music is at once intensely personal and vocally powerful, a dichotomy displayed in the stark contrast between the famed venue's cavernous scale and intimate close-ups of the singer. If you're a Groban fan, this concert will raise you up. B+ —Maureen Lee Lenker