April 3, 2020 (Los Angeles, CA) – Making history as the first Baltimore rapper to achieve a platinum single and racking up over 450 million streams, Shordie Shordie unveils his brand new mixtape, >Music ("More Than Music"), today. Get it HERE via Warner Records.

About the project, Shordie Shordie commented, "The public only sees me as a musician and not as a person too. I understand it, because I love music, but life is far too real for everything to be about just that. There's more to me than my music, and that is the reason why I am where I am today. My character and story speak just as vividly as my songs do. Because of that, I want my fans to dive deeper and truly see that there's more in what I provide and what life provides. This 'more' makes all the difference."

The "more" also adds depth to Shordie's 13-track project. He paved the way for >Music's release with his single "Fucc Friends." Nearing 1.3 million YouTube views and 3.2 million streams, The FADER claimed, "Much like 'Bitchuary,' [Fucc Friends] takes cues from Bay Area rap," and HipHopDX asserted, "Shordie Shordie elevates his 'Captain Hook' flow once again with his choosy 'Fucc Friends.'"

For >Music, Shordie carefully assembled a cohesive body of work from top to bottom enhanced by acute beat selection, eloquent songwriting and scratchy vocal melodies fans can't get enough of. Encapsulating the unique cultural spirit of the DMV area and inspired from the Bay area sound, Shordie's signature vocal delivery on the project is never without the soul or bounce. Confessional dialogue and piano-laden melodies like the slow jam "L.O.V.," "Rather Be" and the catchy "Gotchu Like" capture his charm and relationship goals. Check out the full tracklisting below.

Christening Shordie as "one of the more exciting new acts in recent memory," The FADER also invited him to perform "L.O.V." for their 2020 Digital FORT online festival. Check it out HERE. The official "L.O.V." music video will be arriving on Monday, April 6th. Shordie Shordie's musical growth on >Music is on full display as all signs point to stardom.
