IDK recently gave a moving performance of his timely single “No Cable,” on The Late Show with Stephen Colbert. Watch it HERE. Of the performance, CNN writer Elliott McLaughlin said, “[IDK] bucked convention, opting instead to use his moment on Monday’s edition of ‘The Late Show with Stephen Colbert’ to deliver a message.” The thought-provoking track is on IDK’s 2019 major-label debut Is He Real?

IDK continues to permeate the zeitgeist. He just dropped IDK & Friends 2 (BASKETBALL COUNTY: In The Water Soundtrack) via Clue/Warner Records. ABOUT IDK:

IDK (Ignorantly Delivering Knowledge) is an innovator with few equals. The Maryland-raised rapper and producer subverted genre tropes with his 2015 debut project SubTrap, a nuanced and inventive exploration of the intersection of drug dealing and addiction. Since then, he's continued to make unprecedented moves both in and outside of the studio. After becoming the first artist to premiere an album with Forbes (2016's money-minded Empty Bank), he partnered with Adult Swim to release 2017's IWasVeryBad, which featured everyone from DOOM to Chief Keef. Is He Real?, IDK's major-label debut, is an ascent to another creative plateau. Released jointly via Warner Records and IDK's new label venture Clue, Is He Real? features rapping, singing, and production from the Prince George's County native that's unlike anything he's done before.
