August 6, 2020 (Toronto, Ont.) – Continuing to heat up in 2020, Toronto’s Smiley follows his recently released project YYZ-LAX with a new video for the title track. Directed by 2TAB and shot in Toronto, the video compliments the upbeat vibe of the track depicting Smiley as the ice cream man passing out soft serve cones and refreshments to his friends.

The new video for “YYZ-LAX” arrives on the heels of Smiley's previous visual for “90210,” which is also featured on the project. YYZ-LAX is a body of work recorded while traveling between Toronto and California, with every song on the project representing a specific experience on his timeline.

ABOUT SMILEY

A product of the streets of Toronto, Smiley turns danger into art. He began releasing music in 2018 with his street classic Buy. or. Bye and built a buzz around his originality, backed with street credibility and the ability to bring his first-person experiences to life in his music. He followed that project with A Tape To Remember and Road To Buy or Bye 2 (The Playlist), blazing a trail for himself as he fed the appetite of the streets with new music.
