"sleek, soulful, heartache-infused love songs" - NPR

"A triple threat of an artist with plenty to offer" - Pitchfork

"lovelorn songs that reconcile the sultry sounds of D'Angelo, Prince, and Frank Ocean with Mexican soul and traditional corridos" - Rolling Stone

October 16, 2020 (Los Angeles, CA) - After announcing the project last week, Omar Apollo is back to release Apolonio. His debut project features guest appearances by Kali Uchis and Ruel alongside production collaborations with Albert Hammond Jr, Mk.gee, DJ Dahi, and Michael Uzowuru. The project also includes Apollo's previously-released singles "Want U Around" featuring Ruel, "Kamikaze," "Dos Uno Nueve," titled 219 after his area code in his home state of Indiana, and the self-written and self-produced "Stayback," which The FADER called "his downright funkier work to date."

Coinciding with the project release, Omar Apollo is also sharing a new video from Apolonio. Watch the dreamscape visual for "Kamikaze" directed by Aidan Cullen here.

Apolonio also arrives ahead of Apollo's one-of-a-kind concert documentary airing October 28th. Live from Prince's Paisley Park, the documentary will feature behind-the-scenes footage of Apollo and his band as they record and rehearse around the legendary estate alongside their performance live from the Park. Tickets for the event are on sale here.

Since his 2018 critically-acclaimed debut EP Stereo, Omar Apollo has continued to ascend as an undeniable talent to watch, becoming one of today's brightest breakout stars and one of the most talked about new artists of the last couple of years. Last year he released his second EP Friends, and Rolling

Stone named him an Artist You Need To Know, Pitchfork featured him as a Rising artist, he made his late-night television debut on Late Night with Seth Meyers, and he had two headlining North American tours which included stops at Tyler, The Creator's Camp Flog Gnaw Carnival and Tropicalía Festival. He was also part of YouTube's Foundry International artist development program, with past alumni including Cuco, ROSALÍA, Gunna, Chloe X Halle, and Dua Lipa. In late 2019, he released a pair of singles with Kenny Beats - "Frio" and "Hit Me Up" - the former showcasing Spanish lyrics and playing off of Dembow music, the latter of which featured Dominic Fike. More recently, he released "Imagine U" which was also co-produced by Kenny Beats and was described by UPROXX as "an alluring, melodic anthem about modern heartbreak."
