November 20, 2020 (Los Angeles, CA) – PG County rapper/producer/visionary IDK releases his new single “2 Cents,” along with an accompanying video via Clue/Warner Records. Watch it HERE. Buoyed by blistering 808s and a fiery string section, “2 Cents” offers a canvas perfectly suited for IDK’s sneers about all the people in his life “scheming on the low.” It all continues IDK’s gradual shift to a bigger and more regal sound.

On “2 Cents,” the GQ Style cover star raps over a boisterous instrumental about navigating the perils of fame and dealing with the challenges that come with success. “I got my own two cents if you know what I mean,” IDK raps with a wink.

The song comes on the heels of the thunderous “King Alfred,” with Lil Yachty, and the lavish “Cereal,” with Kenny Mason and J.I.D. In June, the Maryland MC released IDK & Friends 2, the soundtrack to Kevin Durant’s SHOWTIME® documentary, BASKETBALL COUNTY: In the Water, which features tracks with heavy-hitters like Denzel Curry, A$AP Ferg, and Rico Nasty. Listen to “2 Cents” HERE and be on the lookout for more epic music from IDK on the horizon.

ABOUT IDK:

IDK (Ignorantly Delivering Knowledge) is an innovator with few equals. The Maryland-raised rapper and producer subverted genre tropes with his 2015 debut project SubTrap, a nuanced and inventive exploration of the intersection of drug dealing and addiction. Since then, he's continued to make unprecedented moves both in and outside of the studio. After becoming the first artist to premiere an album with Forbes (2016's money-minded Empty Bank), he partnered with Adult Swim to release 2017's IWasVeryBad, which featured everyone from DOOM to Chief Keef. Is He Real?, IDK's 2019 major label debut, is an ascent to another creative plateau. Released jointly via Warner Records and IDK's new label Clue, Is He Real? features rapping, singing, and production from the Prince George's County native that's unlike any he's done before.
