December 11, 2020 (Los Angeles, CA) – Emerging collective 99 Neighbors are capping off a prolific 2020 with the delivery of “GUTS,” an emphatic new song and cutting edge video shot entirely on a VHS camera, which premiered today via Complex. The native Vermont conglomerate of creatives have been dropping heat all year and most recently released their two-song bundle “QWOP” and “Basement.” “GUTS,” produced by in-house producer Somba and featuring rappers Sam Paulino, Swank and HANKNATIVE, arrives as the group embarks on recording their debut album. The body of work will be released in 2021 and fulfill the insatiable appetite 99 Neighbors fans have grown since the group made a splash with their self-released Television project.

Earlier this year, the group's members Jared Fier and Sam Paulino started 99 Radio on Twitch, a weekly livestream where fans could tune into a virtual house party. 99 Neighbors have garnered support by Pigeons & Planes, DJBooth, Billboard, Elevator Magazine, Lyrical Lemonade and more for their dynamism and extraordinary talent.
