January 15, 2021 (Los Angeles, CA) – Today, 13-year-old singer and activist Keedron Bryant releases his anthemic cover of gospel legend LaShun Pace's classic song "I Know I Been Changed," joined by the rapper Symba and GRAMMY®-winning artist Gary Clark Jr. As the theme of Nate Parker's politically charged film American Skin, the song continues Keedron's mission to shed light on the injustices faced by Black and Brown people in the United States. Listen to "I Know I Been Changed" via Warner Records HERE.

Produced by Dem Jointz (Kanye, Janet Jackson, Chris Brown, Rihanna), Keedron and his team revamp Pace's simmering tune with the spirit and strut of a protest anthem. He soars above haunting choirs and Gary Clark Jr.'s thunderous riffs, proclaiming that the angels are on his side. Symba checks in for powerful verses about the slowness of change and the need for fiery revolution: "Everything you say I am you're about to turn me into it." It builds into something deeper than the song, bigger than any of us: a real cry for a new world.

"I Know I Been Changed" is a fitting theme to American Skin, written and directed by the film's star, Nate Parker. The movie follows a Black Marine veteran trying to seek justice for his son who was murdered in front of him by a white police officer during a traffic stop. Watch the trailer HERE.

In celebration of Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Keedron will chat with hosts on The View and perform "I Know I Been Changed" with Symba. Don't miss this powerful performance on January 18th at 10am on ABC.

Keedron has always had a revolutionary potential in his music, and now the world is listening. His fans and supporters include renowned artists like Dr. Dre, Alicia Keys, Kirk Franklin, and Andra Day. He's also garnered attention from publications like Associated Press, who named his breakout hit single "I JUST WANNA LIVE" their 2020 Song of the Year. He recently performed a rendition of Marvin Gaye's "Mercy, Mercy, Me" on Good Morning America after covering the song for ESPN's The Undefeated compilation, I Can't Breathe / Music for the Movement. And for Christmas 2020, he released a charming EP, The Best Time of Year, featuring three holiday classics and a new song with his sister Aiyanna Bryant. Keedron has a lifetime ahead of him, but he's already making the world a better place with his presence.

ABOUT KEEDRON BRYANT:

Singing acapella on a smartphone-shot video, Keedron Bryant moved the world to tears with nothing more than his powerhouse voice and the declaration, "I'm a young black man doing all that I can." The 13-year-old Florida native's YouTube performance of "I JUST WANNA LIVE" surged around the globe as a clarion call for change and the unassuming soundtrack to a moment of revolution. He performed the song on The Ellen DeGeneres Show via FaceTime, and received acclaim from Good Morning America, CNN, The Steve & Marjorie Harvey Foundation, Access Hollywood, and BBC News. Will Smith incorporated the clip in his "No Justice, No Peace" montage, and LeBron James posted it on Instagram with the caption, "I LOVE YOU KID! I LOVE US!" None other than President Barack Obama also cited it. Keedron's work as a young activist continued with his collaborative performance of Jermaine Dupri's "Change" at the Biden/Harris "I Will Vote" concert and his work on the I Can't Breathe / Music For the Movement EP, released in tandem by ESPN's The Undefeated and Disney Music Group. This Christmas, he also performed at the 2020 Disney Park's Magical Christmas Celebration.

Born in Sicily to minister parents, Keedron began singing at just five years old. Attending church regularly, he developed a passion for gospel music. The budding talent first turned heads on season four of Little Big Shots. Represented by Heather Beverly, Esq. in association with Tabettha Plummer, Esq., and legendary producer Dem Jointz, Keedron catapulted to the top of the conversation in 2020, landing a deal with Warner Records and releasing the official "I JUST WANNA LIVE" single as his debut. With R&B energy, soul range, and gospel power, he will undoubtedly make a major impact.
