As we approach and pass the midway mark within the month of June, this summer season has already delivered a hefty load of music for rap fans to dive into.

This week's edition of HipHopDX's New Music Friday Singles coverage adds even more heat into the mix with countless scorching hot collaborations, such as Cactus Jack rapper Don Toliver's sneaky link with Colombian songstress Kali Uchis, and the veteran marquee feature Wale secured from Chris Brown for his heaven-sent release.

Additional highlights include singles from DaBaby, Vince Staples, The Cool Kids, Skepta with A$AP Rocky and others.

Check out the comprehensive New Music Friday Singles list for the week ending Friday (June 18), below.

Wale f. Chris Brown – “Angels”

Wale has become indispensable in the guest features department for much of 2021, most recently executing a profound performance in his appearance on EARTHGANG’s “Options (Remix)” alongside Coi Leray. With divine intervention underway, Folarin counts his blessings and guardians as Chris Brown keeps him company on their “Angels” collaboration.
